

MARCH 31, 2008

Sports Information Director: Scott Kimmelman • Phone: (650) 508-3690 • Email: skimmelman@ndnu.edu

THIS WEEK'S SCHEDULE (MARCH 31 – APRIL 6)

Sport	Date/Time	Opponent	Location
Men's Golf	Mon-Tues, March 31-Apr. 1	Thunderbird Invitational	Phoenix, AZ
Women's Tennis	Friday, Apr. 4 @2:00 pm	Mills College	Oakland, CA
Softball	Saturday, Apr. 5 @12:00 pm (DH)	Chico State	Chico, CA
Lacrosse	Saturday, Apr. 5 @2:00 pm	Dominican University	San Rafael, CA

(DH) - Denotes Doubleheader

ARGO OF THE WEEK

CONRAD CLEVEN, SO., AUSTIN, TX LACROSSE

Conrad helped lead the Argos to a 26-6 victory over Grand Canyon on Saturday. He scored a career high four goals on four shots while recording a team season high 17 groundballs. Conrad also won 17 of 21 face-offs to start the Argos offensive attack.

Teams

Softball: 17-20 (7-9)

Last Week's Results:

3/29

Game 1 – NDNU 8, Dominican 0 (5 innings)

Game 2 – NDNU 10, Dominican 0 (5 innings)

The Notre Dame de Namur softball team brought out their bats in a pair of five inning victories over Dominican University. The Argos used back-to-back-to-back homeruns in game one to win 8-0 before scoring in every inning of game two to win 10-0.

In game one, the Argos scored a run in both the second and third inning before busting the game open in the fourth. Tara-lyn Odo, Dani Langit and Tanya Huson started the fourth off with consecutive singles to load bases. Lindsay Crist stepped in and took the Deena Westrope offering over the leftfield fence for a grand slam. Tara Van Meter and Bria DeLorenzo followed with long balls to give NDNU back-to-back-to-back homeruns. Van Meter also shined on the mound, earning the victory after allowing just three hits in five shutout innings. Danielle Holt, Odo, Huson and Crist recorded two hits apiece to lead the NDNU offense.

The second game was much of the same as the Argos earned another big victory. NDNU scored two runs in first and second innings before adding four more in the third and two in the fourth. DeLorenzo drove in both first inning runs with a bases loaded single while Crist brought in two with a triple in the second. After RBIs from Danielle Gray and Odo, Huson ripped a two-run double to give NDNU an 8-0 advantage. Cassie Moser capped off the scoring with a two-run double in the fourth. Laurel Carstensen picked up the win for the Argos with five innings of two-hit ball. She struck out six and walked three. DeLorenzo went 3 for 3 to lead NDNU while Huson, Crist and Odo registered two hits each. DeLorenzo, Huson, Crist and Moser also drove in two runs apiece.

3/26

Game 1 – NDNU 0, Hawaii Pacific 4

Game 2 – NDNU 1, Hawaii Pacific 10 (5 innings)

For the second straight day, the Notre Dame de Namur softball team was swept at the hands of first place Hawaii Pacific. The Argos fought hard in a 4-0 loss in game one before falling 10-1 in game two.

Courtney Kessell kept the Argo bats silent in the first game, allowing just two hits and striking out eight. The Seasideers produced just four hits on the game, but made the most of them, scoring four runs. They plated two in the second despite picking up just one hit and added another in both the fifth and sixth innings. Tara Van Meter suffered the loss for NDNU after allowing three runs – one earned – on four plus innings of work. Van Meter gave up three hits, walked five and struck out six. Laurel Carstensen came on in relief to hurl two innings of one run ball. Cierra Keeney and Tara-lyn Odo collected the Argonaut hits while four different Seasideers recorded one hit apiece.

The Argos got on the board first in game two, scoring a run in the top of the first. After a Lindsay Crist double, Bria DeLorenzo drove her in with a single to give NDNU their first lead of the series. However, it did not last long as Nicole Kalakau belted a two-run homerun off Keeney to give HPU a 2-1 advantage. HPU blew the game open in the second, scoring five times and taking a 7-1 lead. Laine Shikuma drove home one with a double before Kalakau and Jessica Adolph plated two more with hits of their own. The Seasideers would go on to add another in the third and two more in the fourth to take the game 10-1. Sherise Musquiz earned the win for HPU with five innings of one run ball while Keeney suffered the loss. DeLorenzo delivered two of the Argos three hits and added an RBI. Adolph and Shikuma collected three hits and two RBIs apiece for the Seasideers with Kalakau adding two hits and four RBIs.

3/25

Game 1 – NDNU 1, Hawaii Pacific 9 (6 innings)

Game 2 – NDNU 0, Hawaii Pacific 8

The Notre Dame de Namur softball team fell to 7-7 in PacWest play with a pair of losses to first place Hawaii Pacific. The Argos fell 9-1 in the first game before dropping game two 8-0.

The first game started out close, with each team scoring one in run in the second inning. The Seasideers plated one on a RBI single by Nicole Rivera before the Argos tied the score on Cierra Keeney's two-out RBI single. HPU was back at it in third, taking a 3-1 lead after Krystal Plunkett drove in one with a single and Tajia Acierto added another with a sacrifice fly. The most important play of the game came in the bottom of the when Lindsay Crist nearly gave the Argonauts a lead. With two runners on, Crist belted a pitch to straight away centerfield but was robbed of a homerun by Acierto. Acierto made the catch while crashing into the fence before getting up to catch Tara-lyn Odo trying to score at the plate.

The Seasideer bats picked up again in the fifth, scoring four two-out runs on five hits. The sixth was much of the same as HPU used four hits to plate two more and end the game 9-1. Laurel Carstensen surrendered three runs in three innings before Tara Van Meter came on in relief to allow six runs. Courtney Kessell earned the victory for HPU with five innings of one run ball. Plunkett and Nicole Riviera led the Seasideers with four hits apiece as the team racked up 16 hits for the game. Riviera also added four RBIs while Acierto and Ciera Senas drove in two apiece.

In the second game, HPU picked up where they left off, scoring a run in both the first and third innings. With the Argo bats silenced by Sherise Musquiz, the Seasideers once again got to Keeney in the fourth with two runs on five consecutive singles. HPU added another in the fifth and three more in the seventh to extend their advantage to 8-0. Keeney registered the loss for NDNU, allowing eight runs – five earned – in seven innings of work. Musquiz kept the Argos off balance all game long, earning the win with six shutout innings. Five Seasideers finished with two hits in the game. Van Meter recorded two hits for the Argos with Danielle Holt collecting a double.

Lacrosse: 7-1

Last Week's Results:

def. Grand Canyon, 26-6 (2/29): The Notre Dame de Namur lacrosse team improved to 7-1 on the season with a 26-6 blowout of Grand Canyon. The Argos overcame a slow start to score earn their second victory over the Antelopes this season.

The game stayed close for much of the first period after a pair of GCU goals cut the Argos lead to 4-3. However, NDNU rebounded to outscore the visitors 8-1 in the second and 6-0 in the third. Overall, the Argos scored 22 of the games next 23 goals to take a 26-4 advantage late in the fourth. The Argos outshot the Antelopes 47-31 and held a 55-27 groundball advantage. Four different Argonauts combine to win 25 of 33 face-offs for the game with Conrad Clevlen compiling a 17-4 record. Clevlen also led all players with 17 groundballs.

Nick Huetteman scored a career high six goals on only seven shots while Tim Campeau tacked on a game high eight points with two goals and six assists. Clevlen scored on all four of his shots with Brad Matzek and Owen Williams adding three goals apiece. Nick Campo and Jesse Painter each scored two goals with Campo also adding three assists. Matthew Coric earned his seventh victory of the season with four saves in the first quarter while Jesse Wilkerson made seven saves and allowed just one goal. Marvin Villavicencio played the fourth for NDNU and made four saves.

Men's Golf

Last Week's Results:

No Tournaments

Women's Golf

Last Week's Results:

14th Place at Grand Canyon Invitational (3/25):

The Notre Dame de Namur women's golf team finished 14th at the Grand Canyon Spring Invitational on Monday and Tuesday. The Argos were once again led by Brittany Carrera, but also got a career best 77 in the second round by Nicole Burt to maintain their spot.

Burt's second round 77 was also the best score of any Argonaut for the tournament while Carrera first round 78 was second best. As a team, NDNU finished 17 strokes better in the second round with Jamie Zunini and Kelly Ashton shooting an 80 and 81 respectively. Four Argos finished within five strokes of each other as Carrera's 163 placed her in a tie for 47th. Burt's 165 put her in a tie for 58th while Ashton (167) and Zunini (168) rounded out the NDNU scores.

