

2007 NOTRE DAME DE NAMUR UNIVERSITY ARGONAUTS

FEBRUARY 27, 2007 WEEKLY RELEASE

Sports Information Director: Scott Kimmelman • Phone: (650) 508-3690 • Email: skimmelman@ndnu.edu

THIS WEEK'S SCHEDULE (FEBRUARY 27-MARCH 4)

Sport	Date/Time	Opponent	Location
Lacrosse	Wednesday, Feb 28 @4:00 pm	BYU	Koret Field
Women's Basketball	Friday, March 2 @4:30 pm	Grand Canyon	Phoenix, AZ
Men's Basketball	Friday, March 2 @7:00 pm	Grand Canyon	Phoenix, AZ
Women's Basketball	Saturday, March 3 @4:30 pm	Grand Canyon	Phoenix, AZ
Men's Basketball	Saturday, March 3 @7:00 pm	Grand Canyon	Phoenix, AZ
Lacrosse	Saturday, March 3 @7:30 pm	St. Leo's University	St. Leo, FL
Softball	Sunday, March 4 @12:00 pm @2:00 pm	Chaminade University	Honolulu, HI

ARGO OF THE WEEK

STEPHEN CHANG, SR., LOS GATOS, CA MEN'S BASKETBALL

Stephen helped the men's basketball team to a win in their final home game of the season, a defeat of Dixie State 65-51. Chang, also playing in his final home game at NDNU scored a game high 21 points, grabbed six rebounds and hit five 3-pointers on Senior Night. Stephen's 21 point effort was just one off his career high while the five 3-pointers was a career best.

Teams

Men's Basketball: 9-16 (2-12)

def. Dixie State, 65-51 (2/23): The Notre Dame de Namur men's basketball ended their 2006-2007 home schedule strong with a 65-51 victory over Dixie State on Senior Day. Stephen Chang, the teams only senior led the way with a season high 21 points and knocked down five 3-pointers. Chang, making only his second start was just one point off his career high, hitting 7-10 from the field and grabbing six rebounds. The Argos started off slow, trailing by six halfway through the first before a late run gave them a four point lead at the break. The second half was a different story as NDNU quickly jumped out to a 16 point lead after a 10-0 run. The Rebels battled back within eight, but Chris Clock's three with 8:46 left gave the Argos an 11 point lead. Dixie State would not get the margin into single digits for the rest of the game. NDNU shot 45% for the game, including 54% in the second and committed only eight turnovers. The Rebels turned the ball over 16 times and shot just 38% from the field. Chang scored 11 of his 21 in the second and connected on all three of his 3-pointers in the half. Chris Clock added 11 points, 4 rebounds and four assists while Ryan Cooper tacked on nine points and four assists. Dan Bergeron netted eight points, eight boards and a pair of steals. Ben Hartman led Dixie with 14 points while Troy Randall added 12 points and seven boards.

Top Performers: Stephen Chang – 21 points, 6 rebounds, 5 three-pointers; Chris Clock – 11 points, 4 rebounds, 4 assists; Dan Bergeron – 8 points, 8 rebounds, 2 steals; Ryan Cooper – 9 points, 4 assists

Women's Basketball: 9-17 (8-6)

No games

Lacrosse: 3-1

def. Westminster College, 22-2 (2/26): The NDNU lacrosse team easily handled visiting Westminster College, defeating the Griffins 22-2. The Argos scored the games first 17 goals before Westminster got on the board in the third quarter. The Argos rattled off 46 shots and picked up 61 groundballs to just 13 and 22 from the Griffins. NDNU also won 17 of the games 26 faceoffs. Brad Matzek, making his first appearance of the season scored five goals and added an assist. Mark Scherman scored four of his own while Tim Campeau tacked on three goals and two assists. Justin Der, Owen O'Shea and Josh Russell had two scores each for the Argos, with Der adding three assists as well. Mike Ferrari earned his third win of the season making a pair of saves.

lost to NYiT, 14-13 (2/24): The Notre Dame de Namur lacrosse team could not finish off a magnificent comeback, falling to the New York Institute of Technology 14-13. The Argos did not lead all game long, but constantly fought back to keep the score close. The two teams alternated goals in the first quarter with each side scoring three times before the Bears went ahead in the second netting three goals while the Argos managed just one. After each team scored two more times, the Bears rattled off three straight to push their margin to five goals at 11-6. However, the Argos were far from out of it, scoring five of the next six goals and moving to within one. After a NDNU penalty, Austin Carino scored his fourth goal of the half to give the Bears a 13-11 lead but it did not last long as the Argos once again responded by scoring a pair of goals in eight seconds to tie the game with 4:21 left. NYiT would cap off the scoring on an unassisted goal by Al Maione with 2:16 left. The Argos got one last chance but Tim Campeau's shot with two seconds left was saved and ended the game. Tim Campeau led all players with five goals for the Argos, upping his season total to nine. Campeau also added a game high three assists while Cam Foss tacked on three goals and two assists. Keegan Davidson had his third straight two goal game with Matt Marr adding a pair of goals as well for NDNU. Kevin Hennessy and Austin Carino scored four goals each for New York Tech while Jake Delillo added three scores. Dan Goosk came up big in the net for the Bears, making 19 saves while Mike Ferrari made 10 for the Argos.

Top Performers: Tim Campeau – 8 goals and 5 assists; Cam Foss – 4 goals and 4 assists; Brad Matzek – 5 goals and 1 assist; Justin Der – 2 goals and 4 assists; Mark Scherman – 4 goals and 1 assist; Jon Munk – 3 assists, 11 groundballs and 18-34 on faceoffs;

Golf

Women (12th place) @CSU San Marcos Cougar Invitational (2/20): The NDNU women's golf team finished 12th in the CSU San Marcos Cougar Invitational on Monday. The tournament was supposed to be a two day event, but was changed to one day because of rain. The Argos shot a 355 for the round, 24 shots behind tourney winner Embry-Riddle. Brittany Carrera and Kelly Owen were the top NDNU finishers, placing in a tie for 32nd despite being just eight shots off the pace.