NOTRE DAME DE NAMUR UNIVERSITY
COMMITTEE ON FACULTY DEVELOPMENT

APPLICATION FOR RESEARCH GRANT

Research Grants, $750 or more per grant, are available to full-time and part-time faculty; criteria are described on page 54 of the Faculty Handbook. Research grants are generally not given to projects that constitute expected professional work at the university. These awards may support travel for purposes of research but not to attend conferences.

Please complete the following and attach as a cover sheet to your application.

Your name: _____________________________ Department: _____________________
Signature: ______________________________ Date: ___________________________

This competition is for Spring 2016; application deadline is November 2, 2015. (There will be another competition next semester for awards for Summer and Fall 2016.)

Grant applications should include the following information, typed and attached to this form.

Note: If your proposed research involves human subjects, documentation of IRB approval must be submitted before funds can be awarded.

1. Title and summary of faculty development project being proposed.
2. Activities and methodology.
3. Purpose and value for you and NDNU.
4. Estimated timetable for conducting and completing activities.
5. Audience for whom your results might be published or presented.
6. Itemized budget, which may include stipends.

Award recipients are expected to report the results of their projects to the Faculty Development Committee or present their projects at a Faculty Development Committee-sponsored colloquium.

Contact a member of the Faculty Development Committee – Stephen Cole, Marianne Delaporte, Khameeka Kitt-Hopper, Therese Madden, and Kelly Vaughn – if you have any questions.

Please submit five copies of the above materials via interoffice mail to Marianne Delaporte, co-chair, Faculty Development Committee, c/o Dept of Philosophy & Religious Studies; or preferably one copy, electronically, to mdelaporte@ndnu.edu
