Campus Portal Login Instructions

What is my username?

Your username is your NDNU student/employee ID number. If your ID number begins with a 'zero', then any zero preceding the number 1-9 will be omitted. For example, if the user John Smith has an ID number 001234, then his username would be 1234.

What is my password?

If you had a password on the old Campus Web system, you will use the same password to login to Campus Portal.

If you're a new student or faculty, look for an email Subject: "Your Campus Portal login info" in your NDNU email account.
