Academic Progress at Notre Dame de Namur University

To be eligible for graduation with a bachelor's degree from Notre Dame de Namur University, a student must meet the following:

- Major Requirements
- Institutional Requirements
- General Education Requirements

A total of 124 semester units are required for the bachelor's degree. These must include a minimum of 46 units in upper-division courses. To be eligible for academic honors, students must satisfy a minimum of 46 letter graded upper-division units at NDNU.

Further information regarding NDNU policies, requirements, course descriptions, etc. may be found in NDNU's General Catalog: http://www.ndnu.edu/academics/catalog/. All students are responsible and accountable for knowing the information provided in the student handbook, policies and procedures stated in the NDNU catalog and in addition to tracking their academic progress.

Please note that NDNU staff and faculty members email students through their NDNU email address. Make a habit of checking your NDNU email account at least a few times per week.

Provided below are important tools and resources located on the campus portal, for students to review and track their academic progress. We highly recommend you check the resources at least once per semester.
