

MPA

Do you have what it takes to become a public sector or nonprofit leader?

Notre Dame de Namur University's (NDNU) Master of Public Administration (MPA) will provide you with the relevant knowledge and necessary skills to address public and community service challenges in all levels of government and nonprofit organizations.

What sets our MPA students apart is their motivation and passion for finding innovative solutions to community problems. Located in mid-peninsula in Belmont CA, and serving the greater Bay Area region, our MPA program prepares you to grow in your career by offering a thorough grounding from study of public policy issues to the analytical skills that support good decision-making.
