

STUDENT HANDBOOK 2014-15

NATURE OF THIS STUDENT HANDBOOK

This Student Handbook, the Catalog and the information on the University website (collectively, “documents”) serve as guides to the many student programs, policies, procedures, requirements and resources at the University. These documents do not form a contract with the student. Tuition, student fees, course and course contents, curricular requirements, and other matters referenced or set forth in these documents or otherwise related to students, are subject to change at the discretion of the University at any time, during or after registration or course enrollment, and with or without notice or written confirmation. Please note that only the President of the University may provide authorized final interpretation of the contents of these documents and definite determination of its appropriate application to the particular circumstances of any individual matter.

Additionally, the University assumes no liability, and hereby expressly denies the same, for failure to provide, or delay in providing, educational or related services, due to a reason(s) beyond the control of the University. These reasons include, without limitation, financial issues, power failure, fire, strikes. In addition, damages done by the elements, other acts of God and acts of public authorities are also included. While the University believes that the information contained in the Catalog and Handbook is accurate at the time of publication, the University does not guarantee absolute accuracy. Please direct questions to the appropriate administrator in case of doubt or confusion.

Documents and policies in the online version of the Student Handbook will be updated as needed throughout the academic year. The policies contained in the updated online version of documents supersede those contained in the pdf/printed version of this Handbook.
