

Office of Financial Aid Consent to Release Student Information

Students wishing to give consent to release financial aid awarding information to NDNU partner transfer institutions must complete and return this form to the Financial Aid Office. The Federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) is a federal law designed to protect the privacy of a student's education records. All schools, including NDNU, receiving funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education must comply with FERPA.

Schools are also limited by federal law in how FAFSA information can be used. Schools may share a student's FAFSA information with scholarship-granting or tribal organizations only with the student's written consent. However, NDNU may be prohibited from sharing FAFSA data with other third-party organizations, even where the student has given written consent.

Students may grant the Financial Aid Office permission to release information to NDNU partner transfer institutions by submitting this consent form. You must identify each individual college or university to whom you wish to receive your financial aid information. The information will then be made available only to the authorized institution as permissible under law.

By signing this form, I give permission to NDNU's Financial Aid Office to release information regarding my financial aid award information to the following organizations listed below. I understand that this authorization will be effective until I revoke it in writing.
