Careers in Liberal Arts

The Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Arts is designed to advance working adult students in their current professions. This accelerated evening degree-completion program is a comprehensive major that draws from many academic disciplines, providing students with a broad compass of knowledge and important writing, critical thinking, and leadership skills. The program attracts many students who want to finish their degree in a major wherein they can apply many of the units they have already earned. Often, such students are currently employed and have advanced as far as they can without a bachelor's degree, or they are ready for a new career.
