NOTRE DAME
DE NAMUR UNIVERSITY

FECCC-NDNU

Multiple Subject and Special Education Teacher Residency Program

Far East Contra Costa County (FECCC), in partnership with Notre Dame de Namur University, invites you to attend an information session to learn about a pathway program designed to help you earn your Teaching Credential.

If you already have your bachelor's degree and are ready to move from supporting students to leading your own classroom, this session is for you. Learn about program requirements, timelines, and how this pathway can fit around your current role.

Choose the session that works best for you:

In Person
Monday, November 2, 2026
4:30 PM-5:30PM
Brentwood Union School District Office
255 Guthrie Lane, Brentwood, CA 94513

Virtual (Zoom)
Thursday, November 5, 2026
5:30PM-6:30PM

https://brentwood-k12-ca-us.zoom.us/j/89568322657?pwd=I2SbmWaSFrH3M8XVPGH4b7BQMVwEFs.1&from=addon

Participants Will Learn About:

- The MS and SpEd Credential pathway program
- Program structure and coursework
- Admission requirements & application process
- Tuition assistance & scholarship opportunities available
- Steps to becoming a credentialed teacher

If you are a classified staff member interested in earning your teaching credential, this session is a great opportunity to explore the next step in your career in education.

Both sessions cover the same information, so attendees only need to join one.
